Derelict Cottage on 56 Acres – (Red outline is indicative only and should not be relied upon as a precise representation of land boundaries)

Set in the peaceful and storied landscape of Charlestown, this derelict cottage on approximately 56 acres offers a rare and rewarding project for those seeking a rural escape with development potential.

The property includes a range of outbuildings and farm structures, all of which present restoration opportunities. The lands are in fair to poor condition overall, with an estimated half comprising bogland—ideal for biodiversity, nature interest, or potential environmental schemes.

Crucially, the cottage should qualify for both the Vacant Property Refurbishment Grant and the Derelict Property Grant, giving a significant financial boost to renovation plans.
